Study Questions

Fall 2014 Week 10 of 12

Ice Breaker:

Thanksgiving is right around the corner, what is your favorite food item at the Thanksgiving table?

Getting Started:

1. On a scale of 1-10, 1 being the lowest and 10 the highest. What do you feel your level of yes being yes, and no being no in your life is?
2. Take some time and think back over the last few months and try to recall moments when you have given your word to someone and have qualified it with a vow. What was the qualifier that you used? Do you find yourself doing this frequently?
3. Describe a time when you gave your word to do something, yet you knew inside that you would not be able to accomplish it? What was the driving force that compelled you to give your word in the first place?

4. In Numbers 30:2 it says, “A man who makes a vow to the Lord or makes a pledge under oath must never break it. He must do exactly what he said he would do.” If we make a vow, but do not make it to God, does that let us off the hook to make sure we don’t break it? Why or why not?

Let’s Do Something:

5. How did the group application from last week work out in your life, and what’s one thing your group can do this week to apply this week’s sermon focus?

Digging Deeper:

6. Look at the following verses and determine where each verse lines up with the different verses that the sermon was based on, and briefly describe how they support the verse from the message.
Deuteronomy 23:31, James 5:12, Psalm 48:2, 1John 5:18-19

Looking Ahead:

7. Read Matthew 5:38-42. How does this set of verses speak to you? Do you find it easy to turn the other cheek?
